

A British Leyland Mini has already won outright the British Saloon Car Championship.* Though the race isn't over yet.

The Mini, entered by Equipe Arden and driven by Alec Poole, set the fastest lap-time in its class in seven of the ten races contested so far.

The title was clinched at Oulton Park when the Mini beat a Ford Escort to the flag in the last lap.

This means the end of American dominance in this Championship at last! And further credit to the car that's won more races and rallies than any other car in the world.

Still one race to go. But it's already all over!

Guess there's not much reason for anyone to hang around any more . . .

Subject to official confirmation.*

All over- bar the shouting
